Dear Agnieszka,

It has been a week since I was in Warsaw, meeting you as the first Pole during my first time in Poland. Wonderful memories still linger even though I was there just over 48 hours.

I would like to really thank you again for being such an expert guide and interpreter. Your top-rate professionalism came with a nice personal touch, as we got to know each other enough to swap family stories in such a short time. The 4.5 hours tour of Krakow on the Sunday when I arrived will go down as the most packed and rewarding sightseeing experience I have ever encountered. Poland is no longer an unheralded black box subsumed under the Cold War; it is now to me a blossoming history full of people, places and things that I will want to learn more and more about.

I am copying Ambassador Dubaniowski, to whom I owe big thanks for sending me to Poland, so that he (and perhaps his colleagues) can be informed of the great job you did during my brief stay.

My very best wishes to you and your family.
